
Australia lists two riders for its WEG squad

BRITISH-based Bill Levett has been listed with two horses — Shannondale Titan and Silk Stone — for Australia's squad for the World Equestrian Games in August. Sonja Johnson and Parkiarrup Illicit Liasion have also been listed after meeting the minimum performance criteria. However, this does not mean automatic selection. For other combinations to be considered they must achieve a final score of 50 penalties or less at a CCI* or earn a maximum of 48 penalties at CCI level.

■ Hawley Bennett-Awad and Gin & Juice have been shortlisted for their fifth team appearance by Equine Canada, along with nine other riders for its 2014 World Equestrian Games squad. They are: Peter Barry (Kilrodan Abbott), Kyle Carter (Madison Park), Rebecca Howard (Riddle Master), Kendal Lehari (Daily Edition), Selena O'Hanlon (Foxwood High and Bellaney Rock), Rachel McDonough (Irish Rhythm), Jessica Phoenix (Exponential, Erodium and Pavarotti), Shandiss McDonald (Rockfield Grant Juan) and Kathryn Robinson (Let It Bee).
