

Bill Levett

▲ The Australian eventer, who is based in Gloucestershire, won his first CCI3*. He took the class at Saumur (23-26 May) on Clare Prentice's 10-year-old Shannondale Titan, by Limmerick.

Dressage fans

▲ Olympic gold medalists Charlotte Dujardin and Laura Tomlinson will star in a dressage display after the Global Champions Tour showjumping grand prix in London on 8 June. Charlotte and Laura will perform a special routine for the event.

Savannah Phillips

▲ Zara Phillips has presented her young niece Savannah with a Shetland pony. The two-year-old daughter of Peter Phillips, organiser of the London Global Champions Tour, is reportedly pony-mad.

Newfoundland

▲ The Canadian province is luring tourists with a video clip of a horse ridden by a goat. Film crews spotted the scene while shooting a commercial and knew they'd found viral gold.

Good week

Bad week

A stowaway cat

▼ Gareth and Rebecca Hughes set off for Compiègne CDI in France (report, p52) only to discover they had also packed the cat. They had to wait at a service station for the moggy to be retrieved before they could carry on.

Team Newbery

▼ Showjumper Abbie Newbery, who had a bad fall at Royal Windsor but was thought to have been fine, has discovered she's broken her back. Meanwhile, her stepbrother Ben Dunning has broken his jaw, leaving the yard without a stable jockey.

A Nottinghamshire yard

▼ Rebekkah Hepburn is warning others to be vigilant after £80,000 worth of tack was stolen from her yard near Newark on 24 May. She had 37 saddles, bridles and girths taken.

Wimpy ramblers

▼ Two walkers in Norfolk called police and firefighters for help when a horse blocked their path. They reportedly believed the horse was going to attack them. No one was hurt.
